THE WAY

WHY FOLLOWING JESUS IS NOT SAFE

LIVE BY LOVE

1 CORINTHIANS 13:1-8

1 Corinthians 13:1-8

The Way of Love

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. And if I have prophetic powers, and understand all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give away all I have, and if I deliver up my body to be burned, but have not love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Love never ends. As for prophecies, they will pass away; as for tongues, they will cease; as for knowledge, it will pass away.

Journey Notes

Why is love so deeply embedded into our world? It's everywhere and in everything we do and aspire after. We have love songs, love holidays, love vacations, to remind us of our need for love. The world really runs on love, we can't escape it. Oh that crazy thing called love.

So what is life like without it? Karl Menninger, a well-known psychiatrist noted that, "If people can learn to give and receive love, they'll usually recover from their physical or mental illness." God's universe was built on and exists for love.

This week, let us stop to ask, "Are we living out of love?" Do we live for love, and in love? If not, here are three reasons we should:

- (1) Love is greater than any spiritual or natural gift (1 Cor. 3:1)
- (2) Love is more important than what we know about God or any earthly subject (1 Cor. 13:2)
- (3) Love is the manifest of life: its greater than faith (1 Cor. 13:2 c.f. Gal. 5:6)

The very definition of God is summarized by love (1 John 4:8). When we think about our earthly lives, we must think of it in terms of love. How much of what we do, and who we are is built on love?

We can't fully experience life until we love God and practice living lives of love!
