

April Showers Brunch "Arms Wide Open"

Saturday
April 15

Sponsored by Crosswalk Women 4 Women
10:00 - 11:30am // $10 per person // Childcare available.

Sign up outside after service or email Linda@crosswalkchurch.com to register

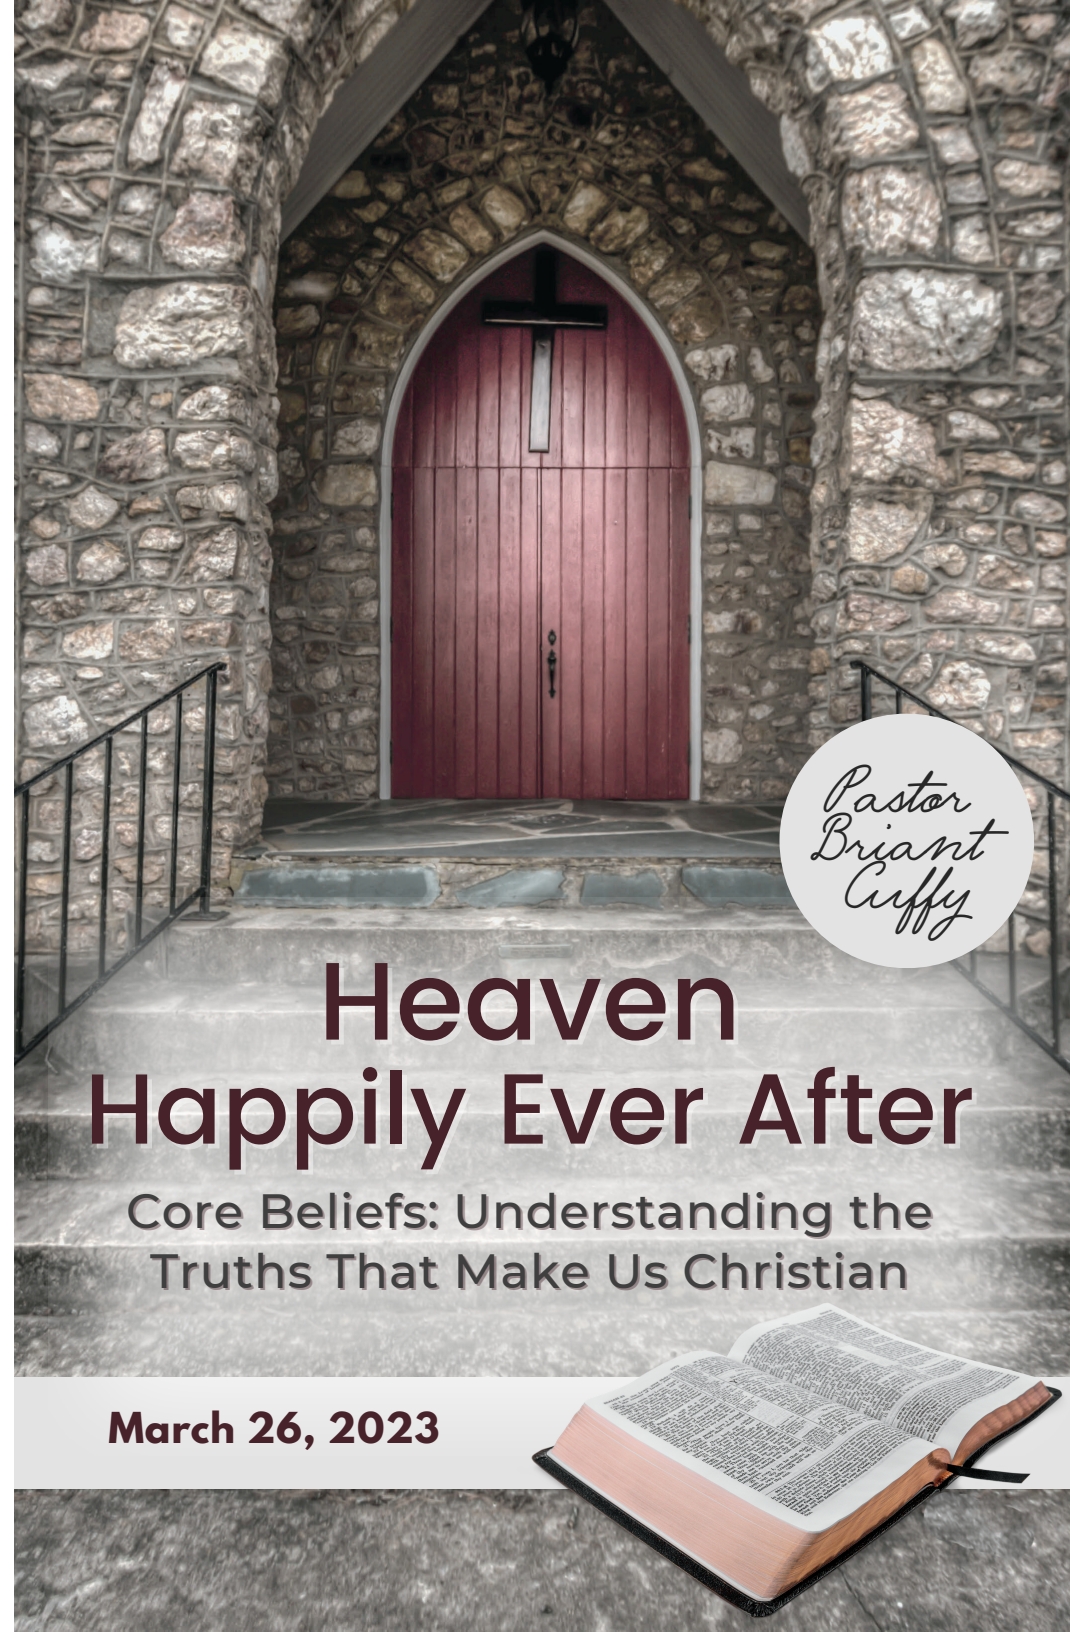

CROSSPOINT

Today After Service
11:30am - 1:00pm

A church should feel like a family. At Crosswalk Church we like to know each other, to learn about each other. Crosspoint is where this begins. It's the point of entry into our community, where you cross over from where you met us to where you're going in God's new community. Crosspoint is a place to ask questions about who we are and what we're about. It's also a place to make friends, share stories and make connections for the journey ahead.

Pastor
Briant
Cuffy

Heaven Happily Ever After

Core Beliefs: Understanding the Truths That Make Us Christian

March 26, 2023

Revelation 19: 6-10

“Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude, like the roar of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, crying out, “Hallelujah! For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns. Let us rejoice and exult and give him the glory, for the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his Bride has made herself ready; it was granted her to clothe herself with fine linen, bright and pure”— for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints. And the angel said to me, “Write this: Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.” And he said to me, “These are the true words of God.” Then I fell down at his feet to worship him, but he said to me, “You must not do that! I am a fellow servant with you and your brothers who hold to the testimony of Jesus. Worship God.” For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.

I AM NEW

THE UNTOLD STORY OF EASTER

A New Belonging
Maundy Thursday, April 6th at 7PM

A New Forgiveness
Good Friday, April 7th at 7PM

A New Identity
Easter Sunday, April 9th at 10AM

CROSSWALK
COMMUNITY CHURCH

www.crosswalkchurch.com

Journey Notes

Are you ready for heaven? Does the idea scare you or excite you? I can't speak for you, but heaven is a bit mysterious, isn't it? I mean, we can't exactly see it. You don't go there on vacation and return to talk about it. No one's done that except Lazarus, and he's not here for questions.

Heaven is the true hope of man. Yet, we mostly think of it as a mystery. But is it really? What do we know about heaven? As it turns out, a lot. This week, we are going to explore the idea of heaven: what is heaven? What will we be doing there? And how can one make reservations?

The best way to think about heaven is as the fulfillment of our most ambitious desires. C.S. Lewis captured it this way: "If I find in myself a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most plausible explanation is that I was made for heaven." Heaven is not an afterthought or a consolation prize. Heaven is the reality. It's the best version of all our human longing and aspiring.

This week, here are some thoughts to help you process the idea of heaven:

- (1) In heaven, God will wipe away all tears (Isa. 25:8-12)
- (2) In heaven, we will live in God's presence (John 14:2-4)
- (3) In heaven, we will worship our King forever (Revelation 5:9-13)
- (4) In heaven, there will be no night or darkness (Revelation 22:1-5)
- (5) In heaven we will have brand new bodies, like Jesus' body (Philippians 3:20-21)
- (6) In heaven we will receive crowns (2 Timothy 4:8, 1 Peter 5:4, 1 Thessalonians 2:9)
- (7) In heaven, there will be great singing and rejoicing (Revelation 19:1-6)

Heaven is not only a reunion, it's an introduction. We will not only be reunited with loved ones, we will be introduced to the God of our faith. We will be like him. We will see him in all his glory.

Heaven will be the greatest surprise of our lives!
Blessings,
Pastor Briant

Journey Notes

Are you ready for heaven? Does the idea scare you or excite you? I can't speak for you, but heaven is a bit mysterious, isn't it? I mean, we can't exactly see it. You don't go there on vacation and return to talk about it. No one's done that except Lazarus, and he's not here for questions.

Heaven is the true hope of man. Yet, we mostly think of it as a mystery. But is it really? What do we know about heaven? As it turns out, a lot. This week, we are going to explore the idea of heaven: what is heaven? What will we be doing there? And how can one make reservations?

The best way to think about heaven is as the fulfillment of our most ambitious desires. C.S. Lewis captured it this way: "If I find in myself a desire that nothing in this world can satisfy, the most plausible explanation is that I was made for heaven." Heaven is not an afterthought or a consolation prize. Heaven is the reality. It's the best version of all our human longing and aspiring.

This week, here are some thoughts to help you process the idea of heaven:

- (1) In heaven, God will wipe away all tears (Isa. 25:8-12)
- (2) In heaven, we will live in God's presence (John 14:2-4)
- (3) In heaven, we will worship our King forever (Revelation 5:9-13)
- (4) In heaven, there will be no night or darkness (Revelation 22:1-5)
- (5) In heaven we will have brand new bodies, like Jesus' body (Philippians 3:20-21)
- (6) In heaven we will receive crowns (2 Timothy 4:8, 1 Peter 5:4, 1 Thessalonians 2:9)
- (7) In heaven, there will be great singing and rejoicing (Revelation 19:1-6)

Heaven is not only a reunion, it's an introduction. We will not only be reunited with loved ones, we will be introduced to the God of our faith. We will be like him. We will see him in all his glory.

Heaven will be the greatest surprise of our lives!
Blessings,
Pastor Briant

Sermon Notes

(1) We Will Rejoice in the Reign of Almighty God (V.6-7a)

(2) We Will Clothe Ourselves in His Righteousness (V.7b-9)

(3) We Will Fall Down and Worship Jesus (V.10)

Sermon Notes

(1) We Will Rejoice in the Reign of Almighty God (V.6-7a)

(2) We Will Clothe Ourselves in His Righteousness (V.7b-9)

(3) We Will Fall Down and Worship Jesus (V.10)